

FIRST LINE SUPERVISION

July 19-23, 2010
(40 P.O.S.T. Credit Hours)

This program is for current supervisors or those about to become a supervisor. The focus is on the role and function of a supervisor, managing and evaluating performance, shaping and changing subordinate behavior. The program covers the legal aspects of supervision, documenting performance and approaches to discipline. Upon completion of the program, attendees should be able to successfully perform the major functions and duties associated with supervising and evaluating a group of employees in a law enforcement setting.

Pre-requisite: Successful completion of the Preparing for Leadership course or equivalent.

The primary instructor for this course will be Dr. Malloy Gould from Gould Organizational Consulting and Training Services.

NOTE: Completion of this FIRST LINE SUPERVISION course is required before a student can attend MID-LEVEL MANAGEMENT SCHOOL.

Application deadline: June 11, 2010

Confirmation date: June 18, 2010

NO SHOW PENALTY FEE: $162.00

Click here for information regarding our no show policy

Registration fee: Wyoming Law Enforcement - $400.00

Other - $500.00

Submit Application Form #SS-2.