

DETENTION OFFICER WYOMING CRIMINAL LAW and PROCEDURES

This course will be offered in conjunction with every Detention Officer Basic Course. Due to schedule changes, the dates of these courses may change. Please contact Sonja Erickson for specific dates. Every student who enrolls and is accepted into this course must attend and test during the same Basic session.

September 7-14, 2011

Application deadline: July 29, 2011

Confirmation date: August 5, 2011

This course is required by Wyoming's Peace Officer Standards and Training Commission for all officers previously certified in states with P.O.S.T. Certified Detention Basic Courses of 292 hours or more. This program provides a comprehensive view of Wyoming statutes and procedures, Use of Force issues, as well as an update of Constitutional Legal issues, Medical Legal issues, Juvenile Law and Police Civil Liability.

Please note: This course is also ideal for any experienced officer who needs or desires a complete review and refresher of all legislative and case-law which is pertinent to the job.

Please be advised that acceptance of the applicant by the Academy, by itself, does not exempt the officer from attending the Wyoming Detention Officer Basic Course. All applications for detention officer certification and requests for exemption from the Basic Course must be made directly to P.O.S.T.

Registration fees: Wyoming Law Enforcement - $275.00

Submit Application Form #CBA-1.

NOTE: Applicants to this course will be required to complete course work before the scheduled course dates. Specific instructions and materials will be sent 2 to 3 weeks prior to the start of this course.