BASIC COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND INFORMATION

COMPLETION REQUIREMENTS

In order to avoid any confusion with regard to what a student must accomplish to graduate from the Detention Officer Basic Course at the Wyoming Law Enforcement Academy, the following criteria is set forth for your information.

- A. Attendance: During the Detention Officer Basic Course, the student is expected to punctually attend all sessions.
1. A student is allowed to miss 10% of the total curriculum due to excused absences (i.e., court time, illness or emergency).
  2. Students must attend the Use of Force lecture. Any student failing to attend this entire session must return to a future Detention Officer Basic Course for this block of instruction.
  3. Students must attend and participate in the Use of Force Practicals; Cell Search Practicals; E.V.O. Practicals; C.P.R. / First Aid / AED Practicals and examinations (Should a student present proof of C.P.R. / First Aid / AED certification with an expiration date after the date of graduation, and with prior approval from their administrator, that student will be exempt from attending the C.P.R. / First Aid / AED lecture and exam); OC Practical (unless excused by his/her agency with prior approval and proper documentation); Any student failing to participate in these exercises must return to a future Basic Course for these practicals.
  4. Unexcused absences cannot be tolerated by the Academy.
    - a. The Academy is responsible to each administrator for the attendance of his or her department's officer(s) during the Basic Course.
    - b. Any student absent or perpetually tardy from class without the knowledge and consent of the staff will have his/her administrator (or prospective employer) notified and may be subject to dismissal.

- B. Testing: Throughout the Detention Officer Basic, the student will be tested in the following areas:
1. Comprehensive examinations covering specific areas of study are given throughout the course, each requiring a minimum score of 70%.
  2. The C.P.R. / First Aid / A.E.D. exam questions are administered as part of a general exam but stand alone with a required score of 80% for each section.
    - a. In addition to passing the written exam, the student must achieve certification by successfully demonstrating proficiency in performing C.P.R. / 1st Aid / AED to the standards of the American Red Cross.
  3. The O.C. Spray exam questions are administered as part of a general exam but stand alone with a required score of 80%.
  4. The Use of Force examination is given following the lecture, requiring a score of 100%.
- C. Retests:
If a student fails to achieve a passing score on any of the above exams, he/she will be allowed to have one retest per examination. Failure to pass the retest will require that the student return to another Detention Officer Basic Course for that block of instruction. The only exception is to the Use of Force examination. If a student fails the Use of Force examination, they will be given a retest. Because of the 100% requirement, if they fail the retest, they will be given one more opportunity to pass an oral examination with a Use of Force Instructor. If they fail at this point they will be required to return to a future Detention Officer Basic Course and successfully complete the Use of Force lecture, examination, and practicum sessions detailed later.
- D. Academic Failure:
If a student fails to achieve a passing score on any three tests (see exceptions below) he/she will not be allowed to continue the Detention Officer Basic Course. Should a student be removed for failing three separate tests, he/she will need to return for the entire Basic Course.

Exceptions:

- a. Use of Force Exam- Must fail Test, Retest & Oral before this is counted as a failure.
  - b. CPR/AED/1st Aid & OC Exams DO NOT count towards “3 strikes rule”. Although, failures in these areas will prevent you from receiving a certificate in that area, as well as the DOB!
- E. Firearms Training: In order to successfully complete the firearms portion of the Detention Officer Basic course, the student must:
1. Pistol
    - a. Achieve a minimum score of 80% on the W.L.E.A. Pistol Proficiency Course.
  2. Retests
    - a. If a student fails to attain a proficiency score on the initial attempt, he/she will be given at least two additional attempts. Regardless of how many attempts are granted, he/she must score two consecutive minimum scores of 80% on the retest (This applies to retests at the Academy or off-site by a certified Academy Range Representative).
    - b. Should a student fail to achieve the minimum qualifying score on the above course at the conclusion of the Range Practicum, he/she will be allowed an opportunity to retest and achieve the passing score within ninety (90) days after the completion of the Basic course.
      - 1) A student may retest with an Academy Range Representative (not from their agency) within 60 days of their Basic graduation date.
      - 2) If a student fails to achieve a passing score on this course within the initial 60 days, he/she must return to the Academy to retest within the remaining 30 days.
    - c. Should a student fail to achieve a passing score on the course during this ninety (90) day retesting period, he/she will be required to return to another Detention Officer Basic Course and complete the firearms training portion of the course.

The Academy Staff will notify an administrator (or perspective employer) of any student who demonstrates serious proficiency problems during firearms training or decision shooting.

- F. Custody and Control: To successfully complete the Custody and Control portion of the Detention Officer Basic Course, the student must pass a proficiency test by accurately performing each technique in the following areas: basic skills, pressure points, impact skills, handcuffing skills, control skills, defense skills, edged weapon skills and weapon retention skills.
1. If a student fails to accurately perform any technique, he/she will be allowed one opportunity within ninety (90) days after the completion of the Basic Course to retest on the failed technique(s).
    - a. A student may retest with an Academy Certified Custody Control Instructor (not from their agency) within 60 days of their Basic graduation date.
    - b. If a student fails to accurately perform any failed technique within the initial 60 days, he/she must return to the Academy to retest within 30 days.
  2. If a student fails to accurately perform any failed technique upon retest, he/she will be required to return to another Detention Officer Basic Course and complete the Custody and Control portion of the course.
- G. Physical Fitness: Students are required to actively participate in the structured physical training program which is part of the mandated curricula of the Detention Officer Basic Course. Although the Academy does not require our students to be at a certain level of fitness in order to graduate, we recommend that anyone employed as a law enforcement officer be at least in the 50th percentile in each category of physical fitness. During the Basic the class will go on several group runs through the Douglas community ranging from 1.5 to 2.5 miles.
- H. Proficiency Skills: To successfully complete the Detention Officer Basic Course, the student must perform at an acceptable level during the Use of Force Practicum. If the student does not pass the Use of Force Practicum, he/she will be retested prior to the completion of the Basic. If the student is still unable to show proficiency in that area, they will be required to return to a future Detention Officer Basic Course and successfully complete the Use of Force lecture, examination, and practicum sessions.

The student will receive additional evaluations for hands-on training in Cell Searches and Fingerprinting. This portion of the training is not evaluated on a pass/fail basis. Any student who performs at a level less than acceptable will still pass, however the Academy strongly recommends they receive additional training.

The Academy Staff will notify the administrator or perspective employer of any student who fails to demonstrate satisfactory progress during any portion of this training.

- I. Rules and Regulations: The student must adhere to all the rules and regulations of the Wyoming Law Enforcement Academy. Serious infractions of these rules may result in suspension or expulsion. It is the responsibility of each student to be familiar with these rules and regulations prior to his/her arrival at the Academy.

ACADEMY INFORMATION

STATUTORY AUTHORITY

The Wyoming Law Enforcement Academy is the only training center available for peace officers, detention officers, public safety communication personnel and coroners in the State of Wyoming. Its primary function is to provide basic training for the law enforcement agencies throughout the state which come under the provisions of the Peace Officer Standards and Training Act (W.S. 9-1-701 through 9-1-708). In addition to the basic courses, the Academy offers a wide variety of specialized training courses dealing with all facets of law enforcement.

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

The Wyoming Law Enforcement Academy exists to upgrade the professionalization of law enforcement in the state by providing the most current, state-of-the-art training available. The Academy continually strives for excellence in the development and delivery of its training programs.

Goals – To provide sufficient basic and specialized training to enable all state and local law enforcement agencies and coroner offices to meet the training mandates prescribed by law.

Objectives –

1. To offer sufficient number of peace officer and detention officer basic courses to meet the demands of departments across the state.
2. To provide law enforcement agencies throughout Wyoming with a pool of trained certifiable people from which to recruit.
3. To offer sufficient advanced or specialized training to enable the state and local law enforcement agencies to meet the advanced training requirements necessary to maintain their certification.

HONOR CODE

“We will not lie, steal or cheat, nor tolerate among us any who does. Furthermore, I resolve to do my duty and to live honorably, so help me God.”

The Honor Code recognizes honor has a broader meaning than simply not lying, stealing, or cheating. True honor requires active support of positive principles rather than simple abstinence from wrongdoing. The oath also affirms the closely related nature of the concepts of honor and duty. The phrase “so help me God,” is taken from the oath of office and affirms a higher standard of living demands a higher source of authority.

TRAINING PHILOSOPHY

Our philosophy is based upon high expectations, both for ourselves and for our students. We recognize that law enforcement is not simply a job, but a position of respect and trust. This respect and trust cannot be bought; it can only be earned and cultivated. Through our training, we strive to instill self-discipline in each student and a high standard of personal and professional conduct. Staff and students alike subscribe to the WLEA Honor Code, which, like the public, demands integrity which is beyond reproach.

The acquisition of knowledge is a never-ending process of personal and professional development that must be pursued with vigor. We provide our students the opportunity to improve their level of knowledge, to enhance their competence, to demonstrate self-discipline, and above all, to be held accountable. These are the essential components of a professional law enforcement officer’s performance of duty.

We acknowledge the public's trust by demanding the best from our students, and in turn, giving them our best. The Wyoming Law Enforcement Academy's standards are high, as are the demands and expectations of our society.

TRAINING SERVICES

Throughout its history, the Wyoming Law Enforcement Academy has placed itself on the cutting edge of current trends in law enforcement training. It is the only law enforcement officer training facility in the state of Wyoming and one of the most modern, state-of-the-art facilities in the United States.

Annually, the Academy provides three Peace Officer Basic Courses; three Detention Officer Basic Courses; two Public Safety Communications Basic Courses; and one Death Investigation/Coroner Basic Course. Additionally, WLEA presents 40 to 50 special and advanced courses each year to meet the continuing educational needs of the state's law enforcement professionals. These courses cover the entire range of law enforcement knowledge, techniques, and skills.

Upon successfully completing a WLEA basic course, the student is granted a certificate of completion and is eligible, upon meeting P.O.S.T. standards, to become a certified peace officer, detention officer, or communications specialist.

It utilizes laser technology with common law enforcement tools to realistically assess a student's decisions concerning Use of Force, tactics, and weapon manipulation.

PHYSICAL TRAINING

Physical training is an integral part of Basic curriculum, as well as many special schools. The physical fitness of all students and staff is of paramount importance at WLEA. To this end, modern physical training areas, used both during class training and after-hours for recreation, are available on campus. A fully equipped gymnasium and weight room are located in the main building.

VEHICLE OPERATION RANGE

Emergency vehicle operations (EVO) courses, developed to educate the student on safe and effective operation of an emergency vehicle, are taught on an 11-acre driving pad. Pursuit and evasive techniques are taught hands-on using the EVO fleet vehicles, and a Skid Car™ to augment the EVO training curriculum. The EVO area also includes a maintenance building and an observation tower. Additionally, a state-of-the-art driving simulator is used during EVO training.

FIREARMS RANGES

Firearms' training is conducted at three locations on the Academy campus. In the main building students use an indoor range equipped with modern features such as variable lighting for low-light training exercises, electronically controlled targets for close-range, mid-range, and long-range fire, and 12 individual, partitioned shooting stations. A 20-station outdoor firing range including a hit-sensitive running man target, a classroom, and spotting tower building is situated below the main building. Shotgun, rifle and advanced handgun training exercises are practiced on a third range.

WLEA LOCALE

RULES AND REGULATIONS

These rules govern the conduct of students while attending the Wyoming Law Enforcement Academy. They are based upon a consideration for the health and safety of students and others and to promote an atmosphere conducive to learning. Each student must become familiar with the expectations these rules place upon him/her.

It is the policy of the Academy to advise a student's agency head of any disciplinary action or reprimand the student encounters while residing at the Academy. Conduct which calls into question a student's integrity, which could discredit the student, the Academy, or the law enforcement profession, or which creates unnecessary conflicts among other students will not be tolerated. Moreover, every student is expected to obey all laws, statutes, and ordinances and to abide by the Wyoming Law Enforcement Academy Honor Code.

Students should be aware of the burden on all law enforcement officers to serve as an example for others and should conduct themselves accordingly during their stay here. Failure to abide by all Academy rules may result in disciplinary action, up to and including immediate dismissal or suspension from the Academy.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Parking is provided in the student parking lot on the west side of the Academy and students will enter the building through the two (2) entry ways on the west side, just off the parking lot. Room assignments will be posted on the bulletin board inside the entry ways.

ARRIVAL AND REGISTRATION

Peace Officer, Detention Officer, and Public Safety Communications Personnel Basic Courses - Students enrolled in these courses are required to report to the Academy by the deadline published in the confirmation notice. Students who must travel a considerable distance may arrive the afternoon of the day before class is to begin. Students arriving early need to be aware that no meals are provided prior to breakfast on the morning the class begins.

RAISING / LOWERING OF FLAGS

We believe that special attention should be given during the raising and lowering of flags as recognition of the great country we live in and the freedom we enjoy because of the many sacrifices our military and law enforcement officers around the world have made. As recognition, and a symbol of respect, we require that all those leaving or entering the grounds stop, and if in a vehicle, we request that they exit and stand at attention throughout the ceremony. In addition, proper salute should be given (i.e., hand over the heart without headgear) while the American flag is raised or lowered.

FIREARMS

All students who bring firearms to the Academy are required to observe the following procedures:

1. Upon initial arrival, the weapon will remain locked in the vehicle.
2. If the weapon will be used in training, a weapon locker may be assigned. If that is the case, at the direction of Academy firearms staff, the weapon will be unloaded outside the building and transported to the indoor range by the most direct route. The student will be issued one (1) key for his locker, and will be held responsible for its safekeeping. Students will be charged $20.00 for each lost key.
3. Ammunition may be stored in either the vehicle or the student's dormitory room.
4. Under no circumstances will a student be allowed to have a weapon in the dormitory.

INJURIES

The Wyoming Law Enforcement Academy provides instruction and conducts hands-on training in a variety of subject areas in law enforcement. There are some inherent dangers and risks of personal injury to the participants involved in some of the training that is provided (firearms, custody control, physical fitness, and emergency vehicle operations, etc.) Although the Wyoming Law Enforcement Academy staff is committed to lessening all chance for injury, the inherent risks in these types of activities can never be totally eliminated. Therefore, it is the student's individual responsibility to:

1. Be aware of the inherent potential for injury in these types of activities and to act responsibly while participating.
2. Notify staff of any physical or medical condition that may adversely affect the student's performance or that may increase the chance for injury.
3. Request clarification of what is expected when unsure or express any individual concern for safety.
4. Agree to assume all reasonable risk of injury before participating.

Injury from accidents incurred during attendance at school may be covered by Workers' Compensation and should be referred to the individual's department. The staff is to be advised immediately of any accident or injury while a student is at the Academy. Pre-Service students are encouraged to carry their own medical insurance policy. Injuries not covered by Workers' Compensation must be covered by the individual's personal or departmental medical insurance carrier.
